

Who Is Schooley Mitchell?

- We are the largest independent cost consulting organization in North America.
- We have 200+ locations coast-to-coast – and growing every month.
- We have 325+ professional consultants helping clients make informed decisions regarding their various business services.
- We have provided our services to more than 24,000 business clients – with many more to come.

What Do We Do?

- We help clients make the best decisions about their business services – we have many areas of expertise.
- We ensure they get the right thing, from the right vendor, at the right price – currently, and for the future.
- We understand the entire marketplace and pass that knowledge on to our clients – including optimal contract terms, pricing options, and equipment choices.
- We invite vendors that we trust to submit their best options to us for consideration for our clients.

What Is Our Client Relationship?

- Our client has engaged us for advice on their business expenses.
- Our client has contractually agreed that all relevant information – including pricing, terms, equipment, etc. – will be submitted to us for evaluation before our client makes any final decisions.

How Can We Work Together With You?

- Since we have numerous areas of expertise in our portfolio, it creates many opportunities for building lucrative referral relationships. These relationships are what our business is built on.
- If you would like to discuss how we can build a long-term, trusting relationship, and would like to be a trusted vendor that submits information and/or quotes to us on a regular basis in relation to all of our clients' needs, please contact us directly.
- If you have any options for consideration for our clients, please submit them directly to us for examination and comparison.
- If you would like to speak to us about our client and the decision-making process, please contact us directly.
